WORLD'S FAIR PROCLAMATION.

On Thanksgiving Day Remember What an Opportunity the World's Fair Offers for Texas.

Whereas, the World's Columbian exposi-tion, to be held in Chicago in 1896 to com-memorate the 400th anniversarry of the dis-covery of America, will be one of the grandest industrial events that history will ver record to the credit of any nation;

Whereas, no better opportunity than this can be offered for Texas to take advantage of the occasion thus presented to make known to the world her remarkable ad-vantages, varied resources and weederful possibilities, which are now dormant for want of proper development; and.

Whereas, Texas is anxious to welcome within its borders the sturdy and industrious homeseeker; anxious and ready for the investment of capital in its undeveloped enterprises; anxious to show to the world that she is in extent an employ unsurpassed that she is in extent an empire unsurpassed in the variety and richness of her products and resources; and, Whereas, no better opportunity affords

A Mold Intended for Making Counterfeit Money.

WAS WORKED BY A SHARPER.

Working for the State Fair-Texas Christian Endeavor Un-

Dallas, Tex., Nov. 18.—At the office of United States Marshai Knight is shown a novel mold, evidently intended for the purpose of making counterfeit money. It is made of two blocks of wood bolted to-gether. On the outside are three or four gether. On the outside are three or four holes, where the metal was run in. On the inside plaster of Paris can be seen having imprints of nickels, dimes and quarters. The mold was found in an old log house near White Rock, owned by Col. O. P. Bowser. The house has long been unoccupied, and has been used to store corn in. Some children moved a couple of boards from the floor and underneath found the mold. How long it had been there or who the past tenants of the house were is not known.

Just before the opening of the fair Madaline Monroe identified one J. H. Overstreet as the man who had robbed her of $40 at Beaumont and had him arrested. A lawyer of the construction of the constru as the man who had robbed her of $40 at Beaumont and had him arrested. A lawyer employed by Overstreet stated that the prisoner was all right and he was turned loose. He then had Madaline Monroe, Detectives Kirby and Pegues and Station Keeper Arnold arrested for false imprisonment. But a warrant has put in its appearance from Beaumont, and he has been arrested on the old charge of theft under an indictment found by the grand jury.

Sometime ago a sharper giving his name as Frank Moantfort went to the town of Canton, East Texas. He worked into the good graces of Joe W. Barnes and secured a loan of $100, giving as security a $5000 check on the "First National bank" of Jallas. Barnes stated overland with him. They reached Dallas this morning. Mountfort started out to take in the sights and Barnes went in search of the "First National" bank to collect his $5000. It is needless to say he did not cash the check, as no such bank exists. On going back to see about his team he found it gone and it dawned upon him that Mountfort had withing him. He at once procured.
